

Feast of the Sacred Heart, 2019

Dear Friends,

“Tell aching mankind to snuggle close to My merciful Heart and I will fill it with peace. From all My Wounds, like from streams, mercy flows for souls, but the Wound in My Heart is the fountain of unfathomable mercy. From the Fountain spring all graces for souls. The flames of compassion burn Me. I desire greatly to pour them out upon souls - speak to the whole world about My Mercy.

Come to Me, all of you. Be not afraid of your Saviour, o sinful soul, I make the first move to come to you for I know that by yourself you are unable to lift yourself to Me. Child, do not run away from your Father, be willing to talk openly to your God of Mercy Who wants to speak words of pardon and lavish His graces upon you. How dear your soul is to Me. I have inscribed your name upon My Hand. You are engraved as a deep wound upon My Heart.” These words were spoken by Our Lord at various times to St. Faustina Kowalaska. They are words of comfort for our troubled times.

Rev. Mother Cyril

Community News

Mother M. Francesca has come from Rome to join us. Among her many talents, Mother is a harpist, but Mother was not able to bring her harp to Australia from Rome, it being too large and delicate. So, offering up her sacrifice, Mother has now returned to doing her beautiful cross-stitch work during the time we spend together each day. For three weeks Sr. M. Cecilia from our Ngakuru community stayed with us. It was a joy to meet her, and especially for Sr. Agnes because Sr. Cecilia is originally from Nigeria. Now she has re-joined her Sisters in Ngakuru and we miss her joyful presence. Sr. M. Walburga is now at the Mother House, having left us with happy memories of her time with us. Rev. Mother M. Cyril is still charming us with her smile even though at ninety and a half she is quite frail.

Farmyard Tales

The pigs became difficult to manage and have been sent to a better place. They will not be replaced. One of the hens died during a thunderstorm and her companion became very strange. Our young friend, Marykate, took her to join the two hens which she cares for with great love. The remaining goose disappeared one night leaving behind just a pathetic little mound of white feathers. In the "hen house" we now have two bantams and two "silkie," which are like fluffy bantams. They are very cute and quieter than hens. Lizzie, the flop-eared rabbit, died one day to the sadness of many. She has been replaced by Bobbie, who has an appealing character and is more lively. We still have the three alpacas plus a little goat which thinks it is an alpaca, and they all graze happily together.

We are so grateful to our dear friend Eamon and his two Irish lads who have put fourteen beautiful stones along the pathway leading to the shrine of Our Lady. These will form the base for the Stations of the Cross, which will make a lovely prayerful setting for them. We would also like to express our gratitude to all our dear Oblates and friends who sacrifice themselves to help us continue our life of prayer for this our poor world of ours - and especially to our dear Chaplain, Rev. Father John Rizzo, who is so faithful in providing us each day with Holy Mass, the "Sun" of our life, and Benediction each Sunday. May God reward all our faithful friends and benefactors now and in eternity.

Congregation News

Our Sisters in Ngakuru, New Zealand, are rejoicing with two new postulants who have settled in very well and one very promising young lady who is “living in” to try out her call to our religious life. They have also added three alpacas to their outdoor community.

In Peru the Sisters are also rejoicing with two new novices. Our postulant at the Mother House is now a very happy and helpful novice.

Our long-serving previous Mother General, Reverend Mother M. Xavier, was stricken with a sudden serious illness from which she is now recovering well at Tyburn. We are all thanking God for the continued progress of our much-loved Mother.

Our Church

In this time of great upheaval and confusion, we often receive letters and phone calls from people who feel lost as well as others who look for changes in the Church which deviate from the most sacred teachings and traditions of our holy Catholic Faith. This Faith, with the unspeakable graces that flow from the Sacraments, is the greatest treasure we could ever have, and we encourage all our dear friends to be strong and faithful in the midst of the battle between good and evil which rages around us. We pray that all may find their secure refuge and their rest in the safety of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Who alone is our Way to the Father and to eternal peace and happiness.

As this is being written, we await the outcome of Cardinal Pell's Appeal. We pray for him and also for all victims of abuse.

We have some leaflets describing St. Faustina's visits to Purgatory and to Hell. If you would like one, please let us know and we will post one to you.

We hope and pray that all of you are in good health and that you will stay free of winter ills and chills.

Our Holy Mass on the Feast of the Sacred Heart will be offered for all your needs and intentions.

*Lovingly in the Merciful Heart of our Saviour,
The Tyburn Nuns*
